

Geauga County Genealogical Society

September through December, 2018

September 11, 2018 “Saving Your Genealogical Data – Electronically”

You’ve gathered a lot of genealogical information. Now how do you store it? Share it? Roger Marble will answer those questions and more.

October 9, 2018 “Ohio Genealogical Society Library”

Tom Neel, director of Ohio Genealogical Society’s Samuel D. Isaly Library will explain to us how to access the vast holdings of this spectacular collection.

November 13, 2018 “Searching FamilySearch”

The LDS Church has been microfilming genealogical records and storing them in Salt Lake City for years. They now have the largest repository in the United States, and it is available FREE on the internet. Learn how to access it from Geauga County’s own genealogist, Cheryl McClellan.

December 11, 2018 “Party Time”

Members and invited guests enjoy an evening of holiday socializing and fun.

Unless otherwise noted, GCGS meets the second Tuesday of each month – September through December at Chardon Library (Bostwick Room) 110 E. Park Street, Chardon, 44024 on the east side of Chardon square. Business meetings start at 7:00 p.m. followed by the program. All are welcome and invited to attend. For more information go to our website: gcgsoh.org or email: gensocyinfo@gmail.com.